"YOUR HOME-FRONT REPORTER," FIVE-A-WEEK SERIES TO START ON CBS
MAY 10, FEATURING FLETCHER WILEY, FRANK PARKER, ELEANOR STEBER

A new five-a-week series called "Your Home-Front Reporter" starts over the Columbia network, Monday, May 10. (WABC-CBS, Mondays through Fridays, 4:00 to 4:25 PM, EWT).

Fletcher Wiley, famed "oracle of the home" is the "home-front reporter." He heads a star-studded cast featuring Metropolitan Opera soprano, Eleanor Steber; Frank Parker, noted American tenor, and a 22-piece orchestra, directed by David Broekman.

The program intersperses a running musical theme with features on scientific nutrition, menus to fit into the rationing program and latest information on home economics. Its educational phases are blended with entertainment designed for men as well as women.

Wiley, authority on nutrition, has appeared on numerous food programs. He is especially well known west of Chicago, having for the last nine years broadcast talks on varied problems of the home.

Steber, was winner of the Metropolitan Opera auditions three years ago. She is a native of Wheeling, W. Va., and was named an honorary colonel at Fort McPherson, Ga., during a recent USO tour of Southern camps.

DON PRYOR, ELEANOR STEBER, WALTER CASSEL AND PHIL REGAN
COMPRISE NEW CAST OF CBS "YOUR HOME-FRONT REPORTER"

9/29/43

Soprano Eleanor Steber, baritone Walter Cassel, romantic tenor Phil Regan and traveling reporter Don Pryor are featured in the new cast of Columbia's five-a-week "Your Home-Front Reporter." (WABC-CBS, Mondays through Fridays, 4:00 to 4:25 PM, EWT). The show, formerly heard from Hollywood, now originates in New York.

Pryor, who has just completed a nation-wide tour to learn the war's impact on the home front, intersperses vital information with reports and colorful anecdotes graphically illustrating what people talk, think and do.

To music by David Broekman's orchestra, the singing stars bring favorite melodies - folk tunes, popular songs and opera excerpts.

Miss Steber, a Metropolitan Opera member, was made an honorary colonel during a USO tour of Southern camps this year.

Cassel, former star of Columbia's "Calling America," also has sung at the "met."

Regan, well known as Brooklyn's "singing cop," rose to stardom after his first break as guest on the CBS "Burns & Allen" program in 1932.

Broekman was born in Holland and educated at the Royal Conservatory at The Hague. He has directed music for many top radio shows and also has prepared musical scores for more than 100 movies.

RONALD GRAHAM IS NEW SINGING-EMCEE ON "BROADWAY MATINEE"

PATSY GARRETT SIGNED AS FEMININE VOCALIST

Ronald Graham, young musical comedy star, has been engaged as the new singing-emcee on Columbia network's "Broadway Matinee" starting Monday, June 5. He replaces Hollywood-bound Alfred Drake. Another innovation is the signing of Patsy Garrett, popular singer, as the program's feminine vocalist. (WABC-CBS, Mondays through Fridays, 4:00 to 4:25 PM, EWT).

Graham was born in Hamilton, Scotland, hometown of Sir Harry Lauder. His family moved to California where young Graham worked with a choral group on a local radio station and appeared in two movies. While in the film capital, Ronald was offered a lead in the Broadway production of "Virginia." Other Broadway successes followed, notably "Du Barry Was A Lady," "By Jupiter" and, currently, "Dream With Music."

Miss Garrett, who has just returned from a USO camp tour, is a singing discovery of Fred Waring. She hails from Richmond, Virginia.

Jim Ameche continues as program host and Allen Roth as conductor of the orchestra.
